

Caution Notice regarding fraudulent activities carried out in the name of Government schemes

It has been observed that many fake agencies/ individuals are involved in fraudulent practices, in the name of Government organizations. Some of the common modus operandi observed is as given:

- a. Using name similar to Government Schemes, with minor spelling change and operating “Phishing sites”.
- b. Using the logo of Government schemes, photo of Hon’ble Prime Minister, Cabinet ministers etc, in their websites.
- c. Providing link of Government websites, to display affiliation with Government
- d. Alluring citizens by promising Government jobs, by issuing appointment letters on fake Government Letters, and extorting money.
- e. Specially targeting and building trap around latest announced Government schemes and incentives.

In this regard, Customers are hereby advised to take due diligence and precautions with respect to these types of frauds.

*This Notice is being issued in public interest.